(1) On receipt of an application from a co-operative land mortgage bank signed and verified by the secretary or any other person duly authorised by the managing committee in this behalf setting forth full particulars of the property required to be distrained, the Registrar shall, if satisfied that the particulars set forth in the application are correct, appoint a distrainer:

Provided that no distrainer shall be appointed unless the applicant deposits such security for costs of the distraint and sale as the Registrar may direct.

(2) The distrainer on appointment shall serve upon the defaulter a written demand specifying the amount for which the distraint is made. The demand shall be dated and signed by the distrainer and shall be served on the defaulter by delivering a copy to him or some adult male member of his family at his usual place of abode; or when such service cannot be effected, by affixing a copy of the demand on some conspicuous part of his abode and of his land.

(3) Simultaneously with the service of notice the distrainer shall cause the property specified in the application to be attached by affixing an order of attachment in the form set forth in the schedule—

(a) where such produce is a growing crop on the land on which such crop has grown; or

(b) where such produce has been cut or gathered on the thrashing floor or place for treading out grain or the like or fodder stack on or in which it is deposited;

and another copy in a conspicuous manner on the outer door of the premises where he resides or works or is known to have last resided.

(4) Where agricultural produce is attached the distrainer shall make such arrangement for the custody thereof as he may deem sufficient.

(5) Subject to such conditions as may be imposed by the distrainer, the defaulter may tend, cut, gather and store the produce and do any other act necessary for maturing or preserving it; if the defaulter fails to do all or any of such acts, the distrainer may do all or any of them either by himself or by any person appointed by him in this behalf, and the costs incurred by the distrainer shall be recoverable from the defaulter as if they were included in or formed part of the order of attachment.

(6) Agricultural produce attached as a growing crop shall not be deemed to have ceased to be under attachment or to require re-attachment merely because it has been severed from the soil.

(7) Crops which are perishable and do not admit of being stored may be sold before they are cut or gathered.

(8) No distraint shall be made before sunrise and after sunset.

Sale of distrained property.

147. (1) If within 15 days from the date of the service of the demand the defaulter does not pay the amount for which a distraint has been effected, the distrainer may sell in auction the distrained property or such part thereof in one or more lots as may, in his opinion, be necessary to satisfy the demand together with the expenses of the distraint and the costs of the sale.

(2) Before a sale is actually made the distrainer shall cause proclamation of the time and place of the intended sale by beat of drum in the village in which the defaulter resides or the produce is kept and in such other place or places as the distrainer may consider necessary to give due publicity to the sale:

Provided that the sale may be made in the nearest bazar or other place of public resort if the distrainer is of opinion that a better price is likely to be obtained there.

(3) The sale shall be made to the highest bidder, who shall be required to pay the purchase money in cash immediately after the sale or so soon thereafter as the distrainer shall appoint, and the purchaser shall not be permitted to carry away any part of the property until the full amount of the purchase money is paid.

(4) If the purchaser fails to pay the purchase money, the property shall be resold and the proceeds of such resale shall be applied in the manner provided in section 100. Any deficiency of price which may ensue from the re-sale and expenses connected with such re-sale shall be certified by the distrainer and shall, at the instance of either the applicant or the mortgagor, be recoverable from the defaulting purchaser through a civil court having competent jurisdiction.

(5) No distrainer or any person employed by or subordinate to him shall purchase either directly or indirectly any property distrained and put up for sale under these rules.

(6) From the proceeds of such sale, a deduction at the rate not exceeding one anna in a rupee may be made on account of the costs of the sale.

(7) Balance of the sale proceeds shall be distributed as laid down in section 100.

(8) If at any time before the sale takes place the defaulter or any person on his behalf deposits with the distrainer or with the land mortgage bank the amount for which the attachment was made together with such costs as may have been incurred up to the date of deposit for causing the distraint, the property attached shall be released.

Investigation of claim, etc.

148. (1) Where any written claim is preferred by any person other than the defaulter to any right or interest in the distrained property, the distrainer shall refer the claimant to the Registrar and shall stay the sale and shall also inform the land mortgage bank of the claim:

Provided that if the property distrained is of a perishable nature he shall forthwith sell the property in the presence of the claimant and keep in custody the sale proceeds.

(2) The Registrar on receipt of a claim to a distrained property shall forthwith notify the distrainer and also the land mortgage bank of such claim and may stay the sale.

(3) The Registrar shall investigate the claim and shall pass such orders as he thinks proper and communicate his orders to the distrainer who shall act accordingly.

(4) If no application is made to the Registrar within fifteen days of the date of the claim made under sub-rule (1), if any, the distrainer shall without further delay proceed with the sale.

Private alienation of property after attachment to be void.

149. Where an attachment has been made under these rules, any private transfer or delivery of the property attached, or of any interest therein, and any payment to the defaulter of any debt or other moneys contrary to such attachment shall be void as against all claims enforceable under the attachment.

Appointment of Sale Officer.

150. (1) The Registrar may appoint any Officer subordinate to him or any other suitable person to conduct sales of property under the provisions of Chapter XI of the Act.

(2) The appointment of a Sale Officer shall be notified in the area of operation of a co-operative land mortgage bank for which he is appointed in such manner as the Registrar may deem proper.

(2) On receipt of the application for sale of the mortgaged property, the Sale Officer shall give notice by registered post to all persons named in the application that he intends to sell the property after the expiry of thirty days from the date of service of such notice unless the amount due (including cost) to the bank is paid within that period.

(3) On the expiry of thirty days from the service of the notice, the Sale Officer shall proceed to sell the property by auction and for that purpose shall cause a proclamation of the time and place of the intended sale to be made in the language of the district and shall also specify as fairly and accurately as possible—

(7) Where the property is divided into lots for the purpose of being sold separately it shall not be necessary to make a separate proclamation for each lot.

(8) The sale shall be held in the village where the mortgaged property is situated or at the nearest place of public resort if the Sale Officer is of opinion that a better price is likely to be obtained there.

Abandonment of sale.

152. (1) Where prior to the actual sale the mortgagor or any person acting on his behalf or any person having interest in the mortgaged property tenders payment of the full amount due including interest and costs incurred in connection with the sale of the property, the Sale Officer shall not proceed with the sale.

(2) If the Sale Officer considers that the price offered for the property is not fair he may upon the application of the owner of the property or some person authorised to act on his behalf, or the land mortgage bank concerned postpone the sale to some other date and on such date the sale shall be completed irrespective of the price offered for the property.

(2) The defaulting purchaser shall forfeit all claims to the property or to any part of the deposit or of the sum for which the property may subsequently be sold.

(3) Every re-sale in default of payment of the purchase money within the period allowed for such payment, shall be made after the issue of a fresh proclamation and in the manner hereinbefore prescribed for the sale.

(4) Any deficiency of price which may ensue from a re-sale by reason of the purchaser's default and all expenses attending such resale shall be certified by the Sale Officer, and at the instance of either the co-operative land mortgage bank or the mortgagor may be recovered from the defaulting purchaser, on application before a civil court having jurisdiction :

4. Every foreign-going ship of Class C of 2,000 tons gross tonnage and upwards shall be provided with apparatus whereby smothering gas sufficient to give a minimum volume of free gas equal to 30 per cent. of the gross volume of the largest hold in the ship can be promptly conveyed by a permanent piping system into any compartment in which cargo may be carried, provided that in steamships and in motor-ships which have available a boiler or boilers having an evaporation of not less than 1 lb. of steam per hour for each 12 cubic feet of the gross volume of the largest hold in the ship, steam may be provided as an alternative to gas.

5. Every ship of Class C shall be provided with:—

(1) Apparatus whereby at least two powerful jets of water can be rapidly and simultaneously directed into any part of the ship, except in ships of less than 2,000 tons gross tonnage in which apparatus for only one powerful jet of water need be provided. Such apparatus shall include two power pumps, each capable of providing a full supply of water to the fire hoses and two fire hoses, each complete with couplings and conductor except in ships of less than 2,000 tons gross tonnage in which one fire hose complete with coupling and conductor only need be supplied; a spare 30 feet length of fire hose; an additional conductor fitting for each hose for spraying water to deal with incendiary bombs.

(2) A portable emergency power pump of an approved type with the necessary fittings; in ships of more than 4,000 tons gross tonnage at least two such pumps and the necessary fittings.

(5) An outfit consisting of one approved breathing apparatus or smoke helmet, a safety lamp, a fire-man's hatchet and, where electric power is available, a portable electric drilling machine to provide emergency means of access to fires through decks, casings or bulkheads.

6. Every motor-ship of Class C, and every steamship of Class C in which oil only is used as fuel for main or auxiliary boilers, shall be provided in the boiler and machinery spaces with:—

(1) A fire hose, complete with couplings and conductor, together with an additional conductor for attachment to the fire hose for spraying water on oil without undue disturbance on the surface.

(2) A receptacle containing at least 10 cubic feet of sand, sawdust impregnated with soda, or other suitable dry material in each firing space, and scoops for distributing such material.

(3) In each boiler room, and in each machinery space in which a part of the boiler oil fuel installation is situated, two approved portable extinguishers of a type discharging froth or other approved medium suitable for quenching oil fires at each firing space.

(3) Two fire buckets and a fireman's hatchet.

(4) Two approved portable fire extinguishers suitable for oil fires.

(5) A suitable quantity of sand, sawdust impregnated with soda or other approved dry material and a scoop placed in a readily accessible position in the engine room.

Ships of Class E.

14. The owner or other person responsible for the management of every ship of Class E shall submit to the Central Government or any other person acting on its behalf a scheme for the provision of fire extinguishing appliances to be carried in the ship and the method of their employment together with plans of the ship, and shall thereafter provide and employ in that ship fire extinguishing appliances in accordance with the approved scheme.

General.

Paragraphs 15 to 24 shall apply generally in relation to the provision and employment of the fire extinguishing appliances required, in pursuance of this Order, to be carried in a ship of any class.

15. Ready availability of apparatus.

All fire extinguishing apparatus and appliances shall be in working order and ready for immediate use when the ship leaves port and at all times during every voyage. Where pumps are electrically operated, the necessary power shall always be available.

16. Pumps.

(1) Fire pumps shall be ready for immediate use at all times when the vessel is in service or about to be put into service.

(2) Power pumps shall be independent of the main engines and each shall be capable of delivering the requisite number of jets of water in any part of the ship. Each power fire pump shall be provided with an effective escape valve suitably placed to prevent excessive pressure in any part of the fire main system.

(3) Portable emergency power pumps shall be of an approved type. Where such a pump is driven by a petrol motor it shall be fitted with a fuel tank of sufficient capacity to provide for not less than one hour's running. Each pump shall be self-priming, shall be furnished with suction and discharge hoses and conductor and conductor fittings for spraying water to deal with incendiary bombs and shall be capable of drawing water directly from the sea when operated from any part of a ship's deck which does not impose a lift of more than 20 feet. The apparatus shall be stowed in reasonably safe spaces outside the machinery space and if more than one such pump is required they shall be stowed in separate places.

(4) Fire pumps not required to comply with clauses (2) and (3) may be of the manual type.

(5) Stirrup hand pumps shall be of approved types and each pump shall have 25 feet of hose fitted with a dual nozzle which can deliver either a 30 feet distant jet or a fine spray carrying about 15 feet. They shall be kept at suitable points above deck, and as necessary below deck near such parts of the ship as could be easily penetrated by incendiary bombs.

17. Water service pipes.

(1) Water service pipes shall be made of wrought material and if of iron or steel shall be galvanised.

(2) The diameter of such pipes shall be sufficient to enable adequate water to be supplied to the fire hose, or to both fire hoses when two are required to be provided for simultaneous operation.

(3) The pipes and hydrants shall be so placed that the fire hoses may be easily coupled to them. In vessels where deck cargo may be carried the positions of the hydrants shall be such that they are always readily accessible, and the pipes shall be arranged as far as practicable to avoid risk of damage by such cargo.

(4) Cocks or valves shall be fitted in such positions on the pipes that any of the fire hoses may be removed while the fire pumps are at work.

18. Fire hoses.

(1) Fire hoses shall be of leather, seamless hemp, flax canvas of first-class quality or other approved material and sufficient in length to project a jet of water to any of the spaces in which they may be required to be used. They shall be provided, where necessary, with suitable metal unions and goose-neck connections

(2) Hoses specified in this Order as "fire hose complete with couplings and conductor", coupling wrenches and goose-neck connections, shall be kept ready for use in conspicuous positions near the water service-hydrants or connections. Such fire hoses shall be used only for the purpose of extinguishing fires or testing the fire extinguishing apparatus at fire drills and surveys. Where hoses are not specified as "fire hose" they shall always be available, but may be used also for other purposes.

19. Fire buckets.

Where fire buckets are specified they shall be of about 2 gallons capacity and shall be reserved for the purpose of fire extinguishing. Such buckets shall be painted red and marked "FIRE" and be kept ready for use in readily accessible positions. At least half the number of fire buckets required to be provided shall be fitted with lanyards.

20. Portable Fire Extinguishers.

(1) Portable fire extinguishers, except when of approved types supplied as an alternative to extinguishers discharging froth for use on oil fires as required by clause (3) of paragraph 6 shall be of an approved fluid type. The capacity of the extinguishers shall be not more than three imperial gallons and shall be not less than two gallons

(2) The portable fire extinguishers provided (other than those supplied in boiler rooms, etc., specially for use in connection with oil fuel fires) shall not be of more than two types.

(3) A spare charge shall be provided for each portable fire extinguisher.

(4) After use of types of extinguishers in which the extinguishing medium is carbon tetrachloride, methyl bromide or other toxic medium, all spaces in which such mediums have been employed shall be sufficiently ventilated before being entered. Extinguishers in which the medium is stored under pressure shall not be provided for use in spaces occupied by passengers or crew.

(5) Fire extinguishers shall be tested at intervals not exceeding four years. Fluid extinguishers under inspection shall be emptied of their contents and examined, and a trial of one shall be made. Fluid extinguishers discharging froth shall be kept in as cool a place as possible.

(6) Fire extinguishers shall where possible be stowed near the entrance to the space in which they are intended to be used. In small motor-ships one of the extinguishers required shall where possible be stowed near the entrance to the motor space.

21 Smothering Gas or Steam for Cargo Spaces and Boiler Rooms

(1) Where provision is made for the injection of gas or steam into the cargo spaces or boiler rooms for fire extinguishing purposes, the necessary pipes for conveying the gas or steam shall be provided with controlling valves or cocks which shall be readily accessible from the deck in any circumstances and so marked as to indicate clearly the compartments to which the pipes are respectively led.

Suitable provision shall be made for locking these valves or cocks so as to prevent inadvertent admission of the gas or steam to any compartment. If any pipe is led to a space to which passengers may have access, it shall be furnished with an additional stop valve or cock also capable of being locked.

(2) Piping shall be arranged so as to provide effective distribution of the smothering gas or steam and in large holds where steam is used there shall be two pipes, one at the forward part and one at the after part, led well down in the space.

In tankers the arrangements for steaming out cargo tanks shall provide for steam being distributed over the surface of the contents of the tanks.

(3) When carbon dioxide is supplied as the extinguishing medium in holds the quantity of gas available shall be sufficient to give a minimum volume of free gas equal to 30 per cent. of the gross volume of the largest hold in the ship.

When carbon dioxide is supplied as an extinguishing medium for boiler rooms the weight of gas carried shall be sufficient to give a gas saturation of 25 per cent. of the gross volume of the largest boiler room measured to the top of the boilers.

(4) When steam is the extinguishing medium in holds, the boiler or boilers available for supplying steam shall have an evaporation of 1 lb. of steam per hour for each 12 cubic feet of the cubic capacity of the largest cargo compartment in the ship.

(5) Means shall be provided for closing all doorways, ventilators and other opening to spaces in which smothering gas or steam can be used as a fire extinguishing medium.

22. Breathing apparatus, Smoke Helmets and Safety Lamps.

(1) A breathing apparatus or smoke helmet shall be of an approved type and shall be equipped with a life and signalling line at least 10 feet longer than the total length of air hose required under clause (2). The life line shall be efficiently attached to a strong leather or canvas harness to be worn by the wearer of the helmet when the latter is in use and shall be made of hemp-covered wire rope of about 1¼ inches circumference. The wire incorporated in the rope shall have a breaking strength of approximately one ton and shall be either galvanised steel or copper.

(2) Where smoke helmets or masks fitted for air hoses are provided the length of air hose supplied shall be sufficient to enable the wearer to go into any part of the holds or machinery spaces from a position on the open deck well clear of hatch or doorway, so as to avoid smoke being supplied to the wearer.

(3) The safety lamp provided shall be of a type approved by the Central Government for use in mines and shall have a minimum burning period of three hours. Where any ship, being a tanker (that is to say, a ship constructed for the carriage of liquid cargos in bulk) is required by this Order to carry a safety lamp, such lamp shall be of the electric battery type.

23. Alternative Appliances.—Where any special appliance, apparatus, extinguishing medium or arrangement is referred to in this Order, the Central Government may approve any alternative apparatus, appliance, medium or arrangement if it is satisfied that it is not less effective than that prescribed in this Order.

24. Fire Drill.—A fire drill for exercising the crew in the use of the fire extinguishing appliances shall be held at least once a week while the ship is in service, and one such drill shall be held before the ship leaves her port of departure or before reaching the open sea on proceeding from such port. The Master may dispense with the weekly drill while the ship is in convoy, and with the drill before the ship leaves her port of departure or before reaching the open sea on proceeding from such port, if in either case he is reasonably satisfied that the whole crew has received by means of previous drills held in that ship proper training in the use of the fire appliances.

At each fire drill, a responsible officer shall examine all fire appliances to ensure that they are in good working order and readily available for use.

A record shall be entered in the ship's official log book of each drill and inspection.

25. Removal of inflammable material.—Readily inflammable material, not being cargo, essential ships' stores or equipment shall, where reasonably possible, be removed from all ships.

26. Exemptions.—The Central Government or any authority empowered by it in this behalf may, subject to such conditions as it thinks fit to impose, exempt any ship, for the period of any voyage or voyages, from compliance with any requirement of this Order, if it is satisfied that the requirement is either impracticable or or unreasonable having regard to all the circumstances of the case.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Bengal Agricultural Debtors Act, 1935, provides that an application for settlement of debt will not be received by the Debt Settlement Board after the expiry of five years from the date of establishment of the first Board in the local area in which the applicant resides In many of the areas the period of five years from the establishment of first Board has practically expired, but it has not been found possible to conciliate all the debts there. It has, therefore, been found necessary to extend the period of five years by two years more. The object of the Bill, therefore, is to extend the period of five years during which an application can be filed before a Debt Settlement Board, to seven years

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.

Dacca, the 13th February 1942.

Monthly Weather and Crop Report of Bengal for December 1941.

I. Character of the season.—The rainfall during the month was generally in defect of the normal.

II. Progress of agricultural operations.—Sowings of spring crops were almost finished. Harvesting of winter paddy was progressing under favourable condition.

III. State of standing crops.—The state of standing crops was favourable.

IV. Prospects and probable outturn.—The prospects of the standing crops were reported to be favourable. The average outturn of the winter rice based on the estimates of the District Officers worked out at 87 per cent. of the normal against 63 per cent. of the previous year; but I should expect almost a normal harvest this year.

V. Damage to standing crops.—Insect-pests made some damage to sugarcane in parts of the Dinajpur district.

VI. Condition of agricultural stock.—The condition of livestock was good. Stray cases of cattle-disease were, however, reported from eleven districts and from the Cooch Behar and Tripura States.

VII. Failure of pasturage and fodder.—Insufficiency of fodder was reported from parts of the 24-Parganas.

VIII. Prices of food grains.—During the second fortnight of the month, the retail prices of common rice of the cheapest quality fell in eleven districts, rose in six and remained stationary in the rest of the Province. The prices ranged from 5½ seers per rupee in Darjeeling and Mymensingh to 10 seers per rupee in Chittagong Hill Tracts.

IX.—Condition of agricultural population.—The condition of agricultural population was, on the whole, fair, except in the distressed areas of the Hooghly, Mymensingh and Tippera districts, where relief measures were in operation.

M. CARBERY,
Director of Agriculture, Bengal.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL

Dacca, the 13th February 1942.

Third and Final Forecast of the Winter Rice Crop of Bengal, 1941-42.

(Note.—On an average of the five years ending 1939-40, the area under winter rice in Bengal has represented some 20·8 per cent. of the total area under winter rice in India.)

Character of the season.—Since the issue of the second forecast in December last, the weather has been favourable for harvesting the crop.

Acreage.—According to District Officers' estimates the total area under winter rice is 16,914,100 acres as compared with 14,916,700 acres of last year.

Outturn.—From the summary of the district returns appended it will be seen that two districts report a bumper crop, ten districts a normal crop of 100 per cent., thirteen districts a crop varying from 83 to 97 per cent. and the rest 75 per cent. of the normal. According to the above estimates the provincial outturn works out to 96 per cent. of the normal as against 63 per cent. of the last year. In my opinion a normal outturn will be reaped for the Province as a whole this year.

Accepting 96 per cent. as the provincial outturn as worked out from the district returns, the gross yield of the crop, on the basis of a normal yield of 12½ maunds of cleaned rice (husked) per acre, is estimated at 7,456,000 tons this year as against 4,315,200 tons in last year. I should however expect 7,766,000 tons of rice this year against the aforesaid estimate of 7,456,000 tons.

M. CARBERY,

Director of Agriculture, Bengal.

(2) "constituency" means one of the constituencies specified in Schedule III to the Act.

2. (1) The electoral roll of every constituency shall be prepared and published by the authority (referred to in these rules as the "Registering Authority") appointed in this behalf by the Provincial Government by notification in the Calcutta Gazette.

(2) For the purpose of the preparation and publication of the electoral roll, the Registering Authority may employ such agency as he thinks fit.

3. No person shall be included in the electoral roll of a General, Muhammadan or Anglo-Indian Constituency by virtue of the qualifications specified in clause (b) or clause (c) of sub-section (1) of section 20 of the Act unless his name is entered in the register maintained under the said clause on an application made by him in that behalf under that clause to the Executive Officer.

Every such application shall be made in Form A or Form B, as the case may be, annexed to these rules and it shall contain a declaration signed by the applicant as to the correctness of the particulars mentioned therein, and the Executive Officer shall satisfy himself about the correctness of the statements made in the application by such inquiry as he considers necessary and the applicant shall produce such evidence, documentary or otherwise, as the Executive Officer may require for the purpose of such inquiry:

Provided that in the case of an application in Form B annexed to these rules it shall not be necessary for the applicant to make the declaration contained in the said form if the name of the applicant appears in the Bustee Inspection Register maintained by the Corporation as owner of the hut in question during the period mentioned by him in his application and the Executive Officer shall satisfy himself about the correctness of the statements made in the application by reference to the said Bustee Inspection Register and by such further enquiry as the Executive Officer may consider necessary.

4. 6. In the case of a General, Muhammadan or Anglo-Indian constituency, the preliminary roll shall be prepared ward by ward, but the Registering Authority may, if he thinks fit, prepare a consolidated preliminary roll for several wards comprising a constituency or part of a constituency. The Registering Authority may also sub-divide the roll in such other manner or into such other parts as he may deem expedient for the purpose of facilitating the preparation of the roll.

7. (1) The names of electors registered in the preliminary roll or any part of the preliminary roll of any such constituency as aforesaid shall be arranged in accordance with the alphabetical order (in English) of the names of the streets and the serial numbering of the premises in such streets contained in the said roll or part of the roll as the case may be.

The names of the electors registered in the roll or any part thereof shall be arranged in accordance with the alphabetical order (in English) of the names of the Trade Unions of which they are members.

10. (1) Before the preparation of the preliminary roll of the labour constituency is taken in hand, the Registering Authority shall cause a notice to be issued, calling upon each trade union which has its registered office within the limits of Calcutta and which is recognized in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 18 of Part IV of the Government of India (Provincial Legislative Assembly) Order, 1936, to submit to him within such time and in such form as he may specify in this behalf:—

(b) in respect of every such member, a copy of a certificate issued by the engager or employer of such member to the effect that such member has been actually engaged or employed within the limits of Calcutta in an industry with which the trade union is connected, and

(c) a copy of the certificate of recognition issued to it in accordance with the provisions of sub-paragraph (2) of paragraph 18 of Part IV of the said order.

(2) Notice under sub-rule (1) shall be issued to each trade union referred to in that sub-rule, and a copy of the notice shall also be published in the manner provided in clause (c) of rule 12, as well as in such local newspapers as the Registering Authority may think fit.

(3) For the purpose of complying with the provisions of clause (b) of sub-rule (1), a trade union referred to in that sub-rule shall be entitled to apply, to the engager or employer of any of its members referred to in clause (a) of that sub-rule, for the issue of the certificate referred to in clause (b) of that sub-rule, and such engager or employer shall not be entitled to refuse the issue of such certificate in respect of any such member so engaged or employed by him.

11. For the purpose of satisfying himself as to the correctness of the list of members submitted by a trade union under rule 10, the Registering Authority may require any trade union to produce before him within such time as he may fix in this behalf, any register, record or document of such union, and may call upon any officer or member of a trade union to appear before him for oral examination on a date or dates to be fixed by him.

12. The preliminary roll prepared as above for every constituency shall be published by the Registering Authority not later than the 15th day of November referred to in rule 5 in the manner following and otherwise as he may think fit to give it wide publicity in the constituency :—

(a) In the case of a constituency other than a special or the labour constituency, by affixing for public inspection a complete copy of the roll at the Central Municipal Office and at the following other places :—

(c) In the case of the labour constituency, by affixing for public inspection a complete copy of the roll at the Central Municipal Office, at the registered office of each trade union which has such office within the limits of Calcutta and which is recognised in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 18 of Part IV of the Government of India (Provincial Legislative Assemblies) Order, 1936, and at such other places as the Registering Authority may consider necessary.

13. Printed copies of the preliminary roll shall be sold to the public at such prices as may from time to time be fixed by the Executive Officer.

14. For the purpose of the disposal of claims for being included and objections to the inclusion of any name in the electoral roll, the Registering Authority may, with the previous approval of the Provincial Government, appoint in writing a person or persons to perform all or any of the duties of the Revising Authority in respect of any constituency or part of a constituency :

Provided that no Councillor, Alderman or officer or servant of the Corporation shall be a Revising Authority.

15. Along with the preliminary roll of every constituency, published as above, a notice shall be simultaneously published in the constituency, and a notice of the publication of the preliminary roll shall also be given by advertisement in local papers, specifying for such constituency or any part of it, the Revising Authority to whom, the place at which, the period within which, and the manner in which, claims for being included in the electoral roll or objections to the inclusion of any name in the electoral roll shall have to be preferred.

18. Every person whose claim or objection is received in time shall be served with a notice by the Revising Authority specifying the place where and the time when his claim or objection will be heard, and he may produce or cause to be produced such evidence as he may wish to adduce, but in the absence of such evidence the Revising Authority shall decide the matter on the entries appearing in the records of the Corporation.

19. When objection is made by any person whose name is on the preliminary roll to the inclusion of the name of any other person recorded therein, the Revising Authority shall serve on such other person a notice stating the grounds of such objection and specifying the place and the time fixed for the hearing of such objection, where and when such other person may attend with such evidence as he may wish to adduce:

Provided that if any objection shall appear to the Revising Authority to be frivolous or to have been made on irrelevant grounds he shall cause to be served on the person making the objection a notice calling upon him to appear and substantiate his objection either in person or by agent on a specific date, and in such a case no notice shall be served upon the other persons until the Revising Authority is satisfied that the objection is well founded, and if the person making the objection shall for any reason fail to appear and substantiate his objection, either in person or by agent on the specified date, the Revising Authority shall proceed as if no objection had been made.

20. Every notice issued by the Revising Authority shall be in writing and shall be served at the address as entered in the preliminary roll or at such other address as may be specified by the claimant or objector in his notice of claim or objection, the person objected to being served only at the address given in the roll, provided that a notice may be served by the Revising Authority by sending it to the person concerned by post.

The notice to be issued to the person objected to shall be either posted seven days before the date fixed for hearing the objection, or served three days before that date if served otherwise than by post.

21. The Registering Authority shall cause to be published from time to time on the notice-board at the Central Municipal Office, a notice showing generally the date on which and the places at which the Revising Authority will sit for hearing claims and objections.

22. The Revising Authority shall dispose of all claims and objections by a date to be fixed by the Registering Authority.

23. On the date fixed for the hearing or on such other date to which the hearing may be adjourned, the Revising Authority shall hold a summary inquiry into the claims or objections preferred, and shall record his orders either allowing or disallowing the claims or objections. He shall also decide on any application or reference made by the Registering Authority for making corrections in the preliminary roll. For the purposes of the inquiry the preliminary roll as published shall be presumed to be correct and complete until the contrary has been proved.

24. (1) The orders of the Revising Authority shall be communicated by him to the Registering Authority, who shall cause the roll to be amended in accordance therewith and shall endorse the same in token that this has been done.

(2) The roll thus amended shall be the final electoral roll and shall thereupon be published by the Registering Authority in the manner prescribed for the publication of the preliminary roll in rule 12.

25. It shall be the duty of the Executive Officer to produce all relevant or necessary documents or papers in his power or possession and otherwise render necessary assistance to the Registering Authority and the Revising Authority in the discharge of their duties.

26. Printed copies of the final electoral roll shall be sold to the public at such prices as may from time to time be fixed by the Executive Officer.

Provided that if the Registering Authority and other persons employed in connection with the preparation and publication of the electoral roll are servants of the Crown, they shall be paid by the Provincial Government such emoluments as may be fixed by the Provincial Government and the Corporation shall, out of the Municipal Fund, pay to the Provincial Government the amounts of emoluments so fixed.

New Delhi, the 7th February 1942

No 3/6/42-Intt.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 4 of the Foreigners Act, 1940 (II of 1940), the Central Government is pleased to make the following Regulations determining the conditions of discipline and the punishment of offences and breaches of discipline of internees:—

1. (1) These Regulations may be called the Internees (Discipline) Regulations, 1942.

(2) They shall apply to internees confined or detained in any place (hereinafter referred to as an internment camp) in pursuance of section 4 of the Foreigners Act, 1940 (II of 1940), but shall not apply to internees detained at Dehra Dun and Ramgarh.

2. The Central Government shall appoint a Commandant for every internment camp.

3. (1) Subject to the provisions of these Regulations, the custody of, and the maintenance of discipline among, internees shall be regulated by orders issued by the Commandant

(2) A copy of such orders shall be forwarded without delay to the Central Government and the Central Government may cancel or modify such orders as it thinks fit.

(3) Orders issued under this regulation shall be communicated to internees in a language which they understand.

4. Any internee who contravens, or fails to comply with, any order made under regulation 3, or whose conduct is otherwise prejudicial to the maintenance of discipline among internees, shall be deemed to have committed an internment camp offence:

Provided that where the act constituting such offence constitutes an offence punishable under the Indian Penal Code with imprisonment for a term exceeding one year, it shall not be deemed to be an internment camp offence.

5. The Commandant upon receiving information of a charge made against an internee under his custody of having committed an internment camp offence, shall dismiss the charge, if he is of opinion that it ought not be proceeded with.

6. If the Commandant is of opinion that the charge ought to be proceeded with, he may either deal summarily with the case, or, if he is of opinion that the offence could not be adequately punished by him, he may forward the internee for trial, together with a statement of the circumstances of the case, to the Court of a Magistrate of the first class having jurisdiction.

7. If the Commandant decides to deal summarily with the case, the accused person may demand that the evidence shall be taken on oath, and in such case the same oath or solemn declaration as that required to be taken of witnesses before a court established under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, shall be administered to each witness.

8. Where the Commandant proceeds to deal with the case summarily, he may award the accused person any of the following punishments (hereinafter referred to as summary punishments), namely:—

(i) Detention for any period not exceeding twenty-eight days.

(ii) Confinement to quarters for any period not exceeding 14 days during which period the offender may be required to answer his name at uncertain hours during the day and may be employed on extra fatigue duties; or

(iii) Suspension of such privileges, not being privileges attaching to his status, as the Commandant may order;

Provided that—

(a) if an internee is awarded detention for a period of ten days or more, he shall not be committed to the detention barrack within three days of the termination of any previous award of detention, and shall not again be committed to the detention barrack within three days of the termination of the said period of ten days or more;

(b) an internee on whom a summary punishment is inflicted shall not be deprived of the privileges attaching to his status;

(c) an internee undergoing a summary punishment shall not be subjected to treatment less favourable than that prescribed, as regards punishment of the same kind, for persons of the like status subject to military law as soldiers.

9 A summary punishment of detention shall be awarded in hours up to a maximum of 168 hours, or in days, when the sentence exceeds that period. A period of detention in hours shall be deemed to begin at the time when the internee under sentence is received at the camp detention barrack on the day of the award, or, if for any reason he has not been committed to the barrack on that day, on the day after the day of the award at the hour fixed for the commitment and release of persons under sentence of detention. A period of detention in days shall be deemed to begin on the day of the award.

10. A summary sentence of detention awarded by the Commandant shall be executed in such manner as the Central Government may from time to time direct:

Provided that a class A internee who is sentenced to a summary punishment of detention shall not be placed in the same premises as a class B internee undergoing the same punishment.

11. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, an internee who has been forwarded to a criminal court under regulation 6 for trial shall not be released on bail, nor remanded to custody otherwise than in the internment camp.

(2) Where an internee has been remanded to custody in an internment camp under sub-regulation (1) he shall be kept under confinement in the camp detention barracks or elsewhere, as the Commandant may direct:

Provided that the internee shall not, by virtue of such confinement, be subject to any other conditions which may be imposed on persons undergoing summary punishment.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Indian Evidence Act, 1872, where an internee is found by the criminal court to be guilty of an internment camp offence, the court shall, before determining the punishment to be awarded to the internee, receive and take into consideration such evidence as may be offered as to the previous conduct of the accused, and the general state of discipline, in the internment camp.

12. An internee shall not be liable to be tried by a criminal court on any charge which has been dismissed or dealt with summarily under these Regulations, and shall not be liable to be dealt with summarily under these Regulations for any offence of which he has been acquitted or convicted by a competent criminal court.

13. (1) An internee who escapes from an internment camp and is recaptured before he has been able to escape from India shall be liable, for such escape, to a summary punishment only.

(2) An internee who, having escaped from India, is again captured, shall not be liable to any punishment for his previous escape.

(3) An internee who abets the escape, or attempt to escape, of another internee shall be liable only to summary punishment for such abetment.

14. An internee shall not be liable to be punished for submitting a petition or complaint with regard to the conditions of his internment, even though such petition or complaint is found to be groundless.

15. An internee convicted by a criminal court of an internment camp offence shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year and shall also be liable to fine.

16. (1) All trials under these Regulations shall be held within the limits of the internment camp and members of the public shall be excluded.

(2) The Commandant may leave the prosecution in the hands of the normal prosecuting agency or appoint such person as he thinks fit to conduct the prosecution.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, or any other law, no pleader as defined in the said Code shall be entitled to appear or act on behalf of the accused without the previous consent of the court.

36. Exhibits.—Where there are exhibits to affidavits filed in an opposition, copies or impressions of such exhibits shall be sent to the other party on his request and at his expense, or, if such copies or impressions cannot conveniently be furnished, the originals shall be left with the Registrar in order that they may be open to inspection. The original exhibits shall be produced at the hearing unless the Registrar otherwise directs.

37. Hearing.—Upon completion of the evidence the Registrar shall give notice to the parties of a date when he will hear the arguments in the case. Such appointment shall be for a date at least fourteen days after the date of the notice, unless the parties consent to a shorter notice. Within seven days from the receipt of the notice any party who intends to appear shall so notify the Registrar on Form TM-7. RESOLUTION.

WAR INDIAN SEAMEN.

New Delhi, the 14th February 1942.

No. 275-M. II (20)/41-War.—The Legislative Assembly, on the 25th February 1941, adopted the following Resolution:—

"This Assembly recommends to the Governor General in Council to take steps to establish schemes providing for the payment from Central Revenues of compensation in respect of war injuries and war damage to effects sustained during the period of the present emergency by masters and seamen employed on sea-going service on ships registered in British India under the Bombay Coasting Vessels Act, 1838, or under the Indian Registration of Ships Act, 1841."

The Council of State adopted a similar Resolution on the 11th March 1941.

2. In pursuance of these Resolutions the Central Government has framed the following schemes of compensation, namely:—

I. The War Pensions and Detention Allowances (Indian Seamen) Scheme, 1942

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) This Scheme may be called the War Pensions and Detention Allowances (Indian Seamen) Scheme, 1942.

(2) It shall come into force at once.

2. Persons to whom the Scheme applies.—(1) This Scheme applies to any person [not being a member of His Majesty's naval forces or a person mentioned in sub-clause (2) of this clause] who is employed or engaged in sea-going service as the master or a member of the crew of a British Indian ship.

(2) This Scheme does not apply to any person who is employed or engaged as a member of the crew of a British Indian ship for no remuneration or nominal remuneration only.

3. Interpretation.—(1) The General Clauses Act, 1897, shall apply to the interpretation of this Scheme as it applies to the interpretation of a Central Act.

(2) In this Scheme, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context—

(a) "British Indian ship" means a ship registered under the Bombay Coasting Vessels Act, 1838, or the Indian Registration of Ships Act, 1841:

Provided that a ship which is being used for the purposes of private amusement or pleasure shall not be deemed to be a British Indian ship for the purposes of this Scheme;

(b) "dependant", in relation to a seaman, means any of the following relatives of the seaman, that is to say, a parent, a brother who has not attained the age of fourteen years, an unmarried or widowed sister, a grandchild who has not attained the age of fourteen years and who is a child of a deceased son or, where no parent of the child is alive, a child of a deceased daughter, a paternal grandparent where no parent of the seaman is alive, and such other relative of the seaman as the Central Government may in any special case or class of case direct, being in each case a relative who was in receipt of genuine, regular and substantial support or benefit from the seaman during the relevant period;

(c) "detention", in relation to a seaman, means detention which is consequent on the capture, seizure, arrest or other restraint of the seaman or of his ship effected by reason of the existence of a state of war while he is in the service of a British Indian ship;

(d) "eligible child", in relation to a seaman, means a child of the seaman who has not attained the age of fourteen years and who was born at any time not later than nine months after the relevant date and who is—

(i) a legitimate son or an unmarried legitimate daughter; or

(ii) an illegitimate son, an unmarried illegitimate daughter, or a daughter whether legitimate or illegitimate who is married or widowed, being a son or daughter who, if born before the relevant date, was at that date being wholly or substantially maintained by the seaman;

(e) "pre-war rate of pay", in relation to the capacity in which a seaman is employed or engaged at the relevant date, means the rate of pay on the 31st day of August 1939, of a seaman employed or engaged in that capacity in service of a type and for a period which is the same as, or similar to, the type and period of the service in which the seaman is employed or engaged at the relevant date;

(f) "relevant date" means, in relation to a seaman whose death or disablement is directly attributable to a war injury or to detention, the date on which that war injury was sustained or on which that detention commenced, as the case may be, and, in relation to a seaman who suffers detention, the date on which the detention commenced;

(g) "relevant period" means—

(i) in relation to a seaman whose death is directly attributable to a war injury or to detention, the period commencing twenty-six weeks before the date on which he sustained that war injury or on which that detention commenced, as the case may be, and ending on the date of his death (but excluding any period during which the seaman suffered detention), or such lesser period as the Central Government may direct in any special case or class of case; and

(ii) in relation to a seaman who suffers detention, the period of twenty-six weeks (or such lesser period as the Central Government may direct in any special case or class of case) ending on the date on which that detention commenced;

(h) "seaman" means a person to whom this Scheme applies;

(i) "war injury", in relation to a seaman, means a physical injury—

(i) caused by—

(a) the discharge of any missile (including liquids and gas), or

(b) the use of any weapon, explosive or other noxious thing, or

(c) the doing of any other injurious act, either by the enemy or in combating the enemy or in repelling an imagined attack by the enemy; or

(ii) caused by the impact on any person or property of any enemy aircraft, or any aircraft belonging to, or held by any person on behalf of or for the benefit of, His Majesty or any allied power, or any part of, or anything dropped from, any such aircraft;

being in any case a physical injury sustained by the seaman while he is in the service of a British Indian ship;

(j) "wife", in relation to a seaman, means a wife married to the seaman at the relevant date, and "widow" shall be construed accordingly;

(3) Where a seaman suffers detention, that detention may for the purposes of this Scheme be treated as continuing until whichever is the earlier of the two following dates, that is to say—

(a) the date of his death;

(b) the date on which it is first practicable for him to arrive back in India;

or until such other date as the Central Government may direct in relation to that seaman or to any class of such seaman.

4. Classification of Seaman.—For the purposes of this Scheme a seaman shall belong to the class which is specified in the second column of the First Schedule to this Scheme in relation to the pre-war rate of pay appropriate to the capacity in which at the relevant date the seaman was employed or engaged.

5. Ascertainment of degree of disablement.—(1) Where a seaman suffers disablement which is directly attributable to a war injury or to detention, the degree of that disablement shall be assessed and certified in accordance with the following provisions of this clause by a Civil Surgeon or a medical officer of the status of Civil Surgeon or a medical board appointed or recognised by the Central Government for the purpose.

(2) In the case of an injury which is specified in the first column of the First Schedule to the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1923, the degree of disablement shall be assessed and certified at the percentage which is specified in the second column of that Schedule in relation to that injury, and, in the case of two or more such injuries, the degree of disablement shall be assessed and certified at the sum of the percentages so specified in relation to those injuries or at one hundred per cent., whichever is the less.

(3) Subject to the provisions of sub-clause (2) of this clause, the degree of disablement shall be assessed by making a comparison between the condition of disablement of the seaman and the condition of a normal healthy male of the same age, without taking into account his earning capacity in his own or any other specific trade or occupation and so that the extent to which that condition has been aggravated by individual factors or extraneous circumstances shall not be included in the degree at which that disablement is assessed :

Provided that, in a case of disablement directly attributable to two or more war injuries or to two or more detentions, or to both a war injury and a detention, the degree of disablement shall be assessed in accordance with this paragraph by reference to the combined effect of each such war injury or detention.

(4) The degree of disablement assessed under sub-clause (3) shall be certified by way of a percentage, total disablement being represented by one hundred per cent., and a lesser degree of disablement being represented by seventy-five per cent., fifty per cent., twenty-five per cent., or less than twenty-five per cent., as may be most appropriate to the degree of disablement.

6. Awards of gratuities for disablement.—(1) Where a seaman suffers disablement which is directly attributable to a war injury or to detention, there may be awarded to him under this clause in respect of that disablement a gratuity of an amount which bears to the sum specified in the second column of the Second Schedule to this Scheme in relation to the class to which he belongs for the purposes of this Scheme the same proportion as the degree at which that disablement has been assessed and certified under clause 5 bears to one hundred per cent.;

Provided that an award under this clause shall only be made in respect of disablement which—

(a) is assessed and certified under sub-clause (2) of clause 5; or

(b) is of a permanent or prolonged character and is certified under sub-clause (4) of clause 5 to be of a degree which is not less than twenty-five per cent.

(2) Where any sum has been paid in respect of the disablement of a seaman by way of a special allowance under clause 7 or by way of a wife's allowance under clause 8, no reduction on account of that sum shall be made in the amount of a gratuity under this clause in respect of that disablement.

7. Awards of special allowances in certain cases.—(1) Where a seaman suffers disablement which is directly attributable to a war injury or to detention and it has not been determined whether an award in respect of that disablement is to be made under clause 6 or what the amount of that award should be, there may be awarded to him under this clause in respect of that disablement a special allowance in accordance with the following provisions of this clause.

(2) A special allowance may only be awarded if the seaman—

(a) is unable by reason of the disablement to provide by his earnings for his own support and that of his family; and

(b) is in need of treatment for the disablement.

(3) A special allowance shall be at the monthly rate of eight rupees.

(4) A special allowance shall not, unless the Central Government in the circumstances of any particular case otherwise determines, be paid after the expiration of the period of twelve months from the date of the war injury or of the end of the detention of which the disablement of the seaman is directly attributable.

8. Awards of wives' allowances in certain cases.—(1) Where the conditions laid down in sub-clauses (1) and (2) of clause 7 are fulfilled in the case of a seaman who has a wife, there may be awarded under this clause in respect of the disablement of the seaman a wife's allowance in accordance with the following provisions of this clause.

(2) A wife's allowance shall be at such rate as the Central Government may from time to time determine having regard to all the circumstances of the case, being a rate which does not exceed the rate specified in the second column of the Third Schedule to this Scheme in relation to the class to which the seaman belongs for the purposes of this Scheme.

(3) A wife's allowance may be paid to the wife of a seaman or may, where there is more than one wife of the seaman, be paid to such one of them or divided between them in such shares as the Central Government may think fit, or may, in any case where the Central Government so directs, be paid to the seaman.

(4) A wife's allowance shall not, unless the Central Government in the circumstances of any particular case otherwise determines, be paid after the expiration of the period of twelve months from the date of the war injury or of the end of the detention to which the disablement of the seaman is directly attributable.

9. Awards of widows pensions.—(1) Where the death of a seaman is directly attributable to a war injury or to detention, and there is a widow of the seaman, there may be awarded under this clause in respect of the death of the seaman a widow's pension in accordance with the following provisions of this clause.

(2) A widow's pension shall be at the rate specified in the second column of the Fourth Schedule to this Scheme in relation to the class to which the seaman belongs for the purposes of this Scheme.

(3) A widow's pension may be paid to the widow of the seaman or, where there is more than one widow of the seaman, may be paid to such one of them or divided between them in such shares as the Central Government may think fit.

(4) A widow's pension or a share of a widow's pension shall cease to be payable on the date on which the widow to whom that pension or share is being paid dies or remarries or begins to live with any person as his wife.

(5) Where a share of a widow's pension ceases for any reason to be payable to a widow of a seaman, the share of that pension payable to any other widow of the seaman shall not be increased on that account.

10. Awards of children's allowances.—(1) Where the death of a seaman is directly attributable to a war injury or to detention, and there is an eligible child of the seaman, there may be awarded under this clause in respect of the death of the seaman a child's allowance for that child in accordance with the following provisions of this clause.

(2) A child's allowance shall, in a case where the child's mother is dead and the child is neither living with nor under the control of a widow of the seaman, be at the monthly rate of four rupees and shall in any other case be at the monthly rate of two rupees.

(3) A child's allowance may be paid to the widow of the seaman if the child is living with her or under her control and may, in any case where the Central Government so directs, be applied for the benefit of the child in accordance with the provisions of this Scheme.

11. Awards of dependant's pension.—(1) Where the death of a seaman is directly attributable to a war injury or to detention, and there is a dependant of the seaman who is in pecuniary need arising from age or from some infirmity or other adverse condition which is not of a temporary character (hereinafter referred to as an "eligible dependant"), there may be awarded under this clause in respect of the death of the seaman a dependant's pension in accordance with the following provisions of this clause.

(2) A dependant's pension shall be at such rate as the Central Government may from time to time determine having regard to the number eligible dependants, their relationship to the seaman, the extent of their need and the other circumstances of the case:

Provided that the rate of a dependant's pension shall not exceed whichever of the following rates is applicable, that is to say—

(a) in a case where the only eligible dependant has not attained the age of fourteen years, the monthly rate of four rupees;

(b) in a case where the only eligible dependant has attained the age of fourteen years, the monthly rate of eight rupees;

(c) in any other case the rate at which a widow's pension could be awarded under this Scheme in respect of the death of the seaman:

Provided also that in any case where a child's allowance is being paid under this Scheme in respect of the death of the seaman at the rate appropriate in a case where the child's mother is died and the child is neither living with nor under the control of a widow of the seaman, the rate of a dependant's pension shall not exceed the rate which is arrived at by deducting the rate of that child's allowance or where there is more than one such child's allowance, the aggregate rate of those children's allowances, from the aggregate rate which would have been awarded under this Scheme by way of widow's pension and child's allowance or children's allowances if there had been a widow of the seaman and the child or children had been living with her or under her control.

(3) A dependant's pension may be paid to the eligible dependant or, where there are two or more such dependants, may be paid to any one of them or divided between any two or more of them in such shares as the Central Government may think fit.

(4) Where a widow's pension has been awarded under this Scheme in respect of the death of a seaman, an award under this clause in respect of the death of the seaman shall not be made to any dependant of the seaman other than a parent and may only be made to a parent of the seaman if the widow's pension has ceased to be paid.

(5) A dependant's pension or a share of a dependant's pension payable to a female dependant who is unmarried or a widow shall cease to be payable on the date on which she marries or remarries or begins to live with any person as his wife.

12. Special provision for awards in respect of death.—No award shall be made under this Scheme in respect of the death of a seaman—

(a) if his death occurs more than seven years after the date of the war injury or of the end of the detention to which his death is claimed to be directly attributable; or

(b) if a gratuity has been awarded under this scheme in respect of the disablement of the seaman on the basis that the disablement was directly attributable to the war injury or the detention to which his death is claimed to be directly attributable:

Provided that, where the Central Government in the exceptional circumstances of any particular case so directs, an award in respect of the death of a seaman may, notwithstanding the provisions of sub-clause (b) of this clause, be made if—

(i) his death was attributable solely to the war injury or detention to which his disablement was directly attributable; and

(ii) his death occurred not later than two years after the date on which that war injury was sustained or that detention came to an end; and

(iii) the degree of that disablement was assessed and certified at not more than twenty-five per cent.

13. Awards of detention allowances.—(1) Where a seaman suffers detention, there may be awarded under this clause in respect of that detention a detention allowance for the whole or any part of the period of that detention in accordance with the following provisions of this clause:

Provided that, unless the Central Government in the special circumstances of any particular case otherwise directs, a detention allowance shall not be awarded in respect of the detention of a seaman where a claim to that detention allowance is first made more than six months after that detention came to an end.

(2) A detention allowance shall consist of an allowance (hereinafter called the "reserved allowance") which may be paid to the seaman after his detention has come to an end, and which shall be at the rate specified in the second column of the Fifth Schedule to this Scheme in relation to the class to which the seaman belongs for the purposes of this Scheme.

(3) If and so long as the seaman has a wife, an eligible child or a dependant, a detention allowance shall, in addition to the reserved allowance, consist of an allowance (hereinafter called the "available allowance") which may either during the detention of the seaman or after his detention has come to an end, be paid to or applied for the benefit of his wife, his eligible child or his dependant or any two or more of them.

(4) The available allowance shall be at such rate as the Central Government may from time to time determine having regard to all the circumstances of the case, being a rate which does not exceed the rate specified in the third column of the Fifth Schedule to this Scheme in relation to the class to which the seaman belongs for the purposes of this Scheme.

14. Time limits for claims.—Unless the Central Government in the special circumstances of any particular case otherwise directs, no award shall be made under this Scheme where a claim to that award is first made more than two years after whichever of the following dates is applicable, that is to say—

(a) in the case of an award in respect of disablement which is claimed to have been directly attributable to a war injury or to detention, the date on which the war injury was sustained or the detention came to an end; and

(b) in the case of an award in respect of death, the date of the death.

15. Provision as to certain allowances where wages are paid.—An allowance under clause 7 or under clause 8 or under clause 13 of this Scheme may in respect of any period be withheld or reduced by such amount as the Central Government may determine where, in respect of that period, a payment has been or will be made to the seaman, or to the wife or an eligible child or a dependant of the seaman, by way of or in lieu of his wages or by way of compensation for the loss of his wages or in fulfilment of a contract of service entered into by him.

16. Provisions as to negligence or misconduct.—Where a war injury or detention, or where disablement or death arising from a war injury or detention, is attributable to the serious negligence or misconduct of the seaman sustaining the war injury or suffering the detention, the Central Government may withhold or cancel any award which may be or has been made under this Scheme in respect of the disablement, death or detention of the seaman or may reduce the amount thereof.

17. Determination of medical question.—Where, in connection with an application for an award under this Scheme any medical question arises, that question shall not be determined except upon the certificate of a Civil Surgeon or a medical officer of the status of Civil Surgeon or a medical board appointed or recognised by the Central Government for the purpose.

18. Provision as to making and payment of awards.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Scheme, awards under this Scheme may be made provisionally or upon any other basis and of such amount and, in the case of awards of allowances or pensions, for such period and at such rate as the Central Government may think fit, so, however, that no award shall be made of an amount or for a period or at a rate exceeding the amount, period or rate authorised by this Scheme in the case of that award.

(2) Any gratuity, allowance or pension awarded under this Scheme shall be paid in such manner as the Central Government may direct and any allowance or pension awarded under this Scheme may be paid in advance or in arrear and at such intervals of time as the Central Government may think fit.

19. Administration of awards.—(1) Any gratuity, allowance or pension which may be paid to a person may, in lieu of being paid to that person, be applied for his benefit if the Central Government considers that it is in the interests of that person that it should be so applied.

(2) Any gratuity, allowance or pension which may be applied for the benefit of any person may be so applied by the Central Government or may be paid by it for the purpose of being so applied to any other person whom it considers to be a fit and proper person so to apply that gratuity, pension or allowance.

20. Provision as to conditions on which awards are made.—Any award under this Scheme of a pension or allowance which may only be awarded if a condition is fulfilled shall cease to have effect if and when that condition is found not to be fulfilled.

21. Review of awards.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Scheme, the Central Government may at any time review an award of an allowance or a pension under this Scheme and, if there has been any mistake of fact, or any change in the condition or circumstances of the person to or for the benefit of whom payment under the award is being made, or if that person is in the opinion of the Central Government unworthy to receive a payment out of Crown revenues, or is being supported in whole or in part out of Crown revenues, or if there is any other reason whatsoever which in the opinion of the Central Government is a good and sufficient reason for so doing, the Central Government may cancel or suspend the award or reduce the rate thereof.

(2) The Central Government may, upon such terms and as from such date (including any past date) as it thinks fit, restore in whole or in part any award which has been cancelled or suspended under sub-clause (1) of this clause and amend the rate of any award which has been reduced under that sub-clause.

22. Administration of Scheme.—(1) The Central Government shall be the sole administrator and interpretor of this Scheme and all questions with respect to the effect or operation of this Scheme shall be determined by that Government and its decision thereon shall be final and conclusive.

(2) The Central Government may make regulations for giving effect to the purposes of this Scheme.

(3) The Central Government may by order direct that any power or duty which is conferred or imposed on the Central Government by any of the preceding clauses shall be exercised or discharged by such officer or authority as may be specified in the Order.
